“Teen-girl fashion model. Photomodel girls.
This blog is dedicated to photo-model girls, and interesting events in the world of fashion and art.

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

Thursday, December 5, 2013
CandyDoll.TV (ValensiyaS) - Veronika Serebryakova. 15 years old. Birthday is the 4th of July.

Some time ago, while looking through my materials, I came across a short message.
Here it is:

[redacted image]

So what, if you were to tell me such messages can be found in the press almost every day, you would be absolutely right! But for me, it's not just another criminal story, or memories of the city I lived in 2 years ago, and where I
Introduced to the heroine of my today's story... but instead, at the beginning a bit of history.

[redacted image]

Kryvyi Rih is the eighth largest city in Ukraine, and one large business center.
During the USSR, it was known as as one of the flagships of the metallurgical industry countries.

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

MAP RIGHTS MOVEMENT

In this very city lived a seemingly small, most ordinary girl.
Her name was Veronika. From the words, Vera and Nick = victory...Her parents wanted to believe that when she grows up—she'll win...and eventually, the girl did gradually grow up.

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

When Veronika was 9 years old, the Japanese came to Kryvyi Rih and announced the recruitment of girls 9-13 years old for trial shoots. Colorful advertising, the promise of good money for the shooting, and a great career future..made business. Those who were younger were brought by their parents. The older ones, sometimes came by themselves, secretly.
What [youthful girl at this age], has not dreamed of making a career as a model?
Flowers, shooting, fans... and here it is! You don't need to go anywhere, come and try it...So [of course] Veronika was among the others...They paid attention to her almost immediately! Blonde, thin girl with an expressive face and brown eyes turned out to be very photogenic.

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

Veronika passed the selection and the shooting began.

[redacted image]
[redacted image]

It turned out to be both interesting and difficult, at the same time. The shooting took almost all my free time..and I still had to go to school, study, at the end
In the end, communicate with friends and just go for a walk..

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

Veronika became extremely popular in Japan, and quickly. She's one of the few CandyDoll girls, in which they (CandyDoll) are the most popular and have the largest 'mount of photosets. She was very natural, direct, alive and smiling, not afraid of picture and video cameras. Filmed with pleasure, about what they have to say about her photos and videos.
Well, an important factor was that along with the growth of its popularity, they have already become more or less serious with money... We can agree that it's enough.
An argument for a family that was not very wealthy, and Veronika as I could, helped my family. Some may condemn her. But how could you judge a 9-year-old child? Guilty, is not her at all..But rather those who destroyed a great, multinational country and turned it, as many hundreds of years ago, into a number of separate "independent" states, canceling out in one fell swoop the work of collecting separate principalities and strengthening Russia of such great people as Prince Vladimir Bogolyubsky -osnovatel the city of Vladimir, Prince Yury Dolgoruky, the founder of Moscow, Prince Alexander Nevsky and many many great and ordinary people ...
Recent events in Ukraine related to its preparation for accession to the European Union shows that this country has not yet been recovered from the "Belovezhskaya agreement" and did not find the path of its further development ...
But I am no politician, perhaps I misunderstand. Besides the point, my goal today is completely different.

I want to reiterate that the CandyDoll project at all was not designed for the audience of the countries of the former USSR, but was EXCLUSIVELY,[only] for the Japanese audience. Not a single domain/IP address from the countries of the former USSR could penetrate this site. To the country with an absolutely different mentality, attitude to eroticism, cult of the naked body, to a woman, not to mention the attitude of the Japanese towards their schoolgirls..Enough to say that closely before the 1939 war in Japan, such a girl over 16 years old was already considered "over-mature", and had almost no chance of getting married.
As a rule, parents in poor families sold them to brothels, thus getting rid of the "extra" mouth to feed..
One thing is that in modern Japan, the fact that there is practically no such thing as pedophilia (not to be merged with the concept of "child pornography"—prohibited and strictly punishable) speaks volumes about the typical Japanese attitude of [youthful] girls...And the now hackneyed sale of worn panties of such schoolgirls in almost every store is completely beyond criticism.. Although sold ONLY in special shops.
A completely different mentality of a former "Soviet" citizen whom doesn't have eyes, but a $ sign sticking out of “one”, and a € sticking out the “other”…Along with them are those who drool at the sight of a 9 to 11-year-old girl. That's how, (roughly speaking) material from the CandyDoll website ended up in our countries..

And of course on Veronika, (who got the nickname ValensiyaS)—immediately attracted attention..And how could one not pay attention to her?:

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

Initially, Veronika perceived all these shootings as a kind of game. Difficult, but Interesting..
And what a lively, charming girl conquered many. Not only those [sexually fond of youthful girls] ..But also real, professional photographers.
And life had continued. Veronika grew up, moved from class to class; Matured.

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

Veronika changed, and obviously so did her sets and videos.

[redacted image]

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

It began to stress her out a bit. The popularity that fell on it brung not only much joy, but as well trouble: At school, on the street (the girl haunted, [stalked] by some "fans").
Some of her former close friends, who had previously been flattered by their friendship with a “celebrity,”suddenly began to speak ill of her.
I am talking primarily about you girls,—Yulia Dzyuba and Lisa Pastushak...

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

Conflicts began. The unpleasantness grew like that of a snowball..And gradually sadness appeared in the girl's huge brown eyes. But the shooting continued, and for more than one year...

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

There were only a few people left, and more friends in the shoot.

[redacted image]

ValensiyaS and LauraB (Lera [Bugorskaya])

[redacted image]
[redacted image]

The closest person to Veronika—her mother, could hardly help anymore.
Her daughter—she had went to Slovenia for permanent residence...
I found out that Veronika is going to move in with her mother this spring. For good. At first from our mutual friend, Yana (ElisaM)

[redacted image]

After that, a few days later, I sent an email to Lera (LauraB)—(by that time Veronika had already deleted all her e-mails and pages; Any form of contact.) Lera, also confirmed it..

Now you can write about Veronika. Veronika has left to reside with her mother forever. Forever..And as far as I understand, she doesn't want to even merely think about Kryvyi Rih, her childhood city. The city that brought her the joy of new friendships, and the bitterness of betrayal by friends and acquaintances.
Veronika couldn't stand the harassment [bullying]. Even her name didn't help her. I may [only] hope that it's temporary..
She hasn't matured yet, but it will [certainly] serve as a great lesson for her.
Before leaving, Veronika texted me,
'I can't take it anymore! I only want one thing—to be left alone..'

All the best to you, Veronika. If you're reading these lines now, I wish you to forget all the unkind, as soon as possible..and keep the kind that was in your old life. And now you're starting a new life, new friends, a new country...
And we, your old friends, will remember and wait for you as will many, many thousands of your true fans.
After all, mobile phones and the Internet are still capable..so we will always have such an ability to see and To hear you..

[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]
[redacted image]

Postscript.

It turned out that my readers were joined by a group of readers of the Sandra-Model forum, dedicated to [Sandra Orlow] Alexandra Grigorieva (Kisterskaya), whom I have already written about in my blog previously..
Taking this opportunity, I would like to address to my old friend and the creator of the forum, nicknamed Sturm, as well as active readers and organizers of the forum: Estetsinitel, podka, and many other such individuals—don't you think that Veronikas fate and Sandra's fate are somehow close?
Both of them are just TIRED!!!
Sandra is already an adult woman with a developing daughter, and a husband. November 14 was her birthday... Don't you believe that it's time to CLOSE this topic?
Sandra is no longer that precious little girl, the one you adore. She has grown up. Maybe it's time to leave them all alone?.
One more coincidence, For those who don't know.. Sandra's daughter's name is.....
Veronika....."